RN INSPECTION OF 8th WORTHING SEA SCOUTS – 30 MAR 11

1. This land based inspection was held at the Group's HQ in Worthing. In attendance were the CC, Mr J Spickett, the DC, Mr R Strange and the DESL (YL), Mr M Hurdell.
2. The inspection commenced when the Inspecting Officer was piped into the HQ and introduced to the Leaders. Once again this large Group made a most impressive sight when assembled all together in the Hall. Colours was conducted with full and formal ceremony following Naval tradition, including use of the bell.
3. On inspection all were smartly turned out and had clearly made significant personal efforts for which they are commended. When spoken to they described a most varied and enjoyable programme of activities of which their clear favourites were camping and kayaking. However both Troops have imaginative weekly programmes including such things as making horror movies. It was good to hear that the older Scouts know what Challenge badges they need to complete their Chief Scouts Gold Award and are working towards them. All Scouts have a good number and range of activity badges as applicable to their time in the Troop.
4. The large Explorer Unit continues to grow with most of the Scouts from both Troops moving up. Keen and enthusiastic, they have a full programme of activities and are following the DofE and Scouting awards programme. A significant number work with other sections within the Group and District and are completing the Young Leader training. All modules are covered and they should be encouraged to complete the missions and gain the Young Leader Belt Buckle.
5. The Cub and Beaver sections continue to thrive with numbers now effectively being limited by the size of the Troops into which they feed. They also have an active programme and many gain their Chief Scouts Silver award. Given that they are part of a Sea Scout Group it would be good to see the older Cubs having some form of positive water activity experience as a taster for what they will do in the Troop.
6. Given the size of both Troops plus the Explorer Unit running the inspection requires good organisation and coordination. This was well demonstrated this evening as the inspecting officer was moved seamlessly between meeting the young people and seeing them at their activities. The activities seen this evening included the Scouts knotting, whipping, learning about life jackets and buoyancy aids, parts of the boat and distress signals. The Explorers were seen undertaking Young Leader training, First Aid training and expedition planning. All activities were well led and fully engaged the young people who had learnt the lessons well.
7. They are active outdoors holding several camps throughout the year including Summer Camps at Longridge and Decoy Broad as well as survival, expedition and other training camps locally.

8. Water activities continue to be focussed at Southwater and Summer Camps. It was good to see so many in the Group holding kayaking qualifications. Sailing experience is limited, with the conditions at Southwater not being good. Given this I remain surprised that more is not made of the opportunities to sail locally on the River Adur as the 3rd Shoreham and 3/5th Lancing Sea Scouts successfully do so. The comments on their boat fleet made in previous reports remain valid and they have recently replaced their older buoyancy aids and life jackets.

9. They support the District participating in events and in particular with the Gang Show. They have not really engaged with the RN Scheme through the events but do take advantage of the other privileges associated with the scheme.

10. As usual the HQ was well presented for inspection. The lease has now been secured and they are confident in their position such that they have invested in new, more secure, doors and have plans for refurbishment of the galley. Overall it is a good facility which clearly meets their needs.

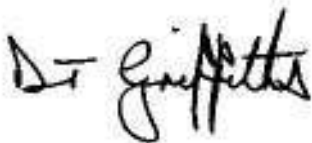

11. Each sectional group has it's own clearly defined and identifiable Leadership team who consistently provide a good Scouting programme to their young people. Their success can be measured by the large number of young people in each section and the low leakage rates on transfer between sections. The Leaders also work well together and there is a good friendly, family atmosphere to the whole Leader team.

12. The full Group Executive continues to work well in support of the Group and whilst parental support to individual troops and sections is reported to be sound they would like to see more parental representation on the Executive and for whole Group activities. Financially sound and well managed, funds continue to be raised as previously reported.

13. The evening ended with the presentation of 2 Chief Scout Gold Awards following which Sunset was conducted with the customary ceremony by the Scouts. The Group were the addressed by the Inspecting Officer during which he announced that they had most successfully passed this inspection and presented their Certificate of Recognition to Mr I Wetherall, the GSL.

14. Smart, disciplined and having a first class Scouting programme this very large Group most ably demonstrated that they have fully maintained the standards expected of an RN Recognised Sea Scout Group. They are fine ambassadors for the RN in this locality and fully earn and deserve their recognition – Well Done.

15. Lt Cdr Griffiths thoroughly enjoyed this inspection and thanks his hosts for their warm and friendly welcome and most generous hospitality throughout. He wishes the Group all success in their future activities.

D T Griffiths
Lieutenant Commander Royal Navy

Area Three – Membership

Age Ranges (refer Part A section 3)
16-20	The Scouts/Explorers are part of a large Troop /Unit with a good number of members at each age across the full age range	11-15	The Scouts/Explorers are part of a medium size Troop/Unit with a good number of members at each age across the full age range.
6-10	The Scouts/Explorers are part of a Troop/Unit that does not have members at each age across the full age range	1-5	The Scouts/Explorers are part of a small Troop/Unit, that does not have members at each age across the full age range
20	Group Assessment Score	20	Inspecting Officer Score

Appearance
16-20	The Scouts/Explorers are very smart on parade, in correct uniform which included all badges	11-15	The Scouts/Explorers are smart on parade, but not all Scouts had correct uniform
6-10	The Scouts/Explorers paraded, but they are not all attentive, and a number did not have correct uniform	1-5	The Scouts/Explorers are poorly behaved on parade with little regard for uniform and awards.
18	Group Assessment Score	17	Inspecting Officer Score

Role of Young People (refer Part A sections 9)
16-20	Young people play a full part in the leadership of the Troop by active and frequent involvement in the Troop Leadership Forum, by running Troop ceremonies and parades and by teaching skills and holding Adventurous Activity Permits.	11-15	Young people are involved in the leadership of the Troop through occasional meetings of the Troop Leadership Forums. Older Scouts/Explorers help others to learn new skills and assist with boating skills on the water
6-10	Young people have limited involvement in the running of the Troop. The Troop Leadership forum meets infrequently and older scouts generally can't or won't help in training new members of the Troop.	1-5	The Troop has few if any young people in the 12 ½ plus age range. The Troop forum rarely meets if at all.

Area Four - Adult Leadership and Support

Adult Leadership (refer Part A sections 4 and/or Sections 10)
16-20	The Troop/Unit is lead by a strong team of well-trained and experienced Leaders, Assistants and instructors, who together provide an excellent programme of activities.	11-15	The Troop/Unit is lead by a team of Leaders and other adults with a adequate level of training and experience and committed to provide a good Balanced Programme
6-10	The Troop/Unit is lead by a small team of Adult leaders, but it needs more members to increase the skill and experience required to deliver a good Balance Programme	1-5	The Troop/Unit has a serious Adult Leader shortage and despite the efforts of those involved, is failing to deliver a satisfactory programme.
16	Group Assessment Score	18	Inspecting Officer Score

Group Organisation and Structure
16-20	The level of parental/community support for the Group is high, with a strong Group Executive and major fundraising schemes in place	11-15	The level of community/parental support for the Group is good, with an effective Group Executive, and a fundraising programme designed to meet expenses.
6-10	The level of Parental/community support for the Group is limited, with a group executive that has vacancies and a fundraising programme that is struggling to cover the costs.	1-5	The parental/community support is minimal and the Group Executive does not function properly and no programme of fundraising exists.
10	Group Assessment Score	15	Inspecting Officer Score

Area Five - Naval Knowledge and Participation

Naval Knowledge
16-20	The Group accurately follows Naval ceremonial; the HQ is decorated with Naval illustrations and the Scouts are very knowledgeable about the Royal Navy and its role.	11-15	The Group follows the spirit of Naval Ceremonies proficiently, the conduct is correct and the HQ well presented with many Naval items on display with which the Scouts are familiar.
6-10	The Group has a Colours ceremony with satisfactory conduct; the HQ is tidy with some Naval items on display with which the Scouts are unfamiliar.	1-5	The Group is very informal in its ceremonial, does not use the Bosun's Call and there is little Naval feel to the HQ. Scouts know little about the Royal Navy or its ships.
12	Group Assessment Score	14	Inspecting Officer Score

Participation in RN Recognition Scheme
16-20	Leaders regularly assist in the organisation of the Big Three Events; Scouts attend these regularly but also visit HMS BRISTOL and other establishments for Group arranged activities as part of their programme.	11-15	Leaders assist and participate in the Big Three events; Scouts attend one or more Events and occasionally visit HMS BRISTOL for other activities. Some uniform obtained from Sea Cadet Stores.
6-10	Leaders and Scouts have participated in a Big Three Event but do not use HMS BRISTOL or any other service facility. Sea Cadet stores has been used.	1-5	The Group does not participate actively in the scheme and neither the Scouts nor the Leaders know much about it.
